Mt. Prospect seeks to join Sanitary Dist.

Frank Opeka, Des Plaines, attorney for the village of Mt. Prospect, was instructed Tuesday evening to prepare a statute for presentation to the Illinois legislature next month that would give the village of Mt. Prospect the right to join the Sanitary district. Such a procedure is the first step needed to legalize such an annexation.

Members of the village board are studying such annexation as one solution of their sewage and drainage problems. Mt. Prospect does not have to join the district just because the law is enacted.

Accept $8,000 federal funds for storm water planning

The Mt. Prospect Board has passed the necessary resolution that accepts the offer of $8,000 of federal money for storm sewer planning. Here again the board is not certain that the installation of such a system is advisable at this time, but think it would be good business to put that federal money to work, just in case ways could be found to finance the project.

Engineer Lewis told the board that the storm water problems increases in proportion to the number of homes being built and that as Mt. Prospect grows the present sewer system will have increasing difficulty in handling the drainage and with the drainage, the sewage. "It means more and more water in basements," stated Lewis. He also explained that he knew that the sanitary district would not take care of Mt. Prospect sewage unless separate storm water sewers are previously constructed.

County to hold zoning hearings next Thursday

Zoning Board of Appeals of Cook County will hold zoning hearings Thursday, March 13, in Arlington Heights, Palatine and Bartlett village halls.

The hearing at Bartlett will open at 5:30. A petitioner has asked a rezoning from farming to business, tavern and amusement of land at the intersection of Rte. 20 and North ave., extending east from Bartlett.

The Palatine hearing will be held at 7:30 p. m. to consider rezoning from residential to business of two lots in block 6 of Frank E. Merrill & Co.'s Greater Palatine.

Hearing on two changes will open at 8:15 at Arlington Hts. One of these is at the northwest corner of Central road and Rand road, opposite the Zenith radio towers. Petitioner desires to have property rezoned from farming to business. Sinclair Oil Co. are reported to be interested in the establishment of a gas station at that point. Mt. Prospect village board has asked the zoning board of that town to attend the hearing.

The second hearing at Arlington will consider a lot in Arlington Gardens, Rand road, for change from farming to light industry.

Two new candidates for library board

Paul E. Patrick, 319 W. Hawthorne and Robert D. Dibble, 817 N. Chestnut are new candidates for Arlington Heights library Board. Mr. Patrick will take the place of Mr. Ratliff for a four year term, who is remaining in naval reserve. Mr. Dibble will be elected for a two year term, filling the vacancy of Alfred Capps, who has moved to Glencoe. Mrs. Helen Graham, 504 Mayfair road, is a candidate for re-election.

Housing situation is getting desperate

As a public service Paddock Publications are this week placing on this page three appeals for housing that would normally only appear on the classified page.

$50 reward will be paid for a home for a school teacher. Phone Arlington Heights 200.

HELP! HELP! Five children and parents need home; for rent or purchase; one week before we'll be in the street; rent was refused at present place; will pay $75 a month. Mrs. H. Graff, 348 W. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights.

LOCAL FIRM will guarantee rent of $75 a month for use of employee; five in family; should have three bedrooms. Owner or anyone desiring to make $12,000 investment for purchase of available house, call Arlington Heights 1521. There are seven other appeals for homes in the classified section of this paper.

Red Cross drive goes into high gear next week

The 1947 national budget for the American Red Cross Fund Campaign has been fixed at 60 million dollars. According to the national budget figures, 75% of this amount will be spent on veterans, both in and out of hospitals, or men still in service and on the families of veterans and servicemen.

The balance of the funds will be used for domestic disaster relief, health and educational services, overseas emergency relief, general service and assistance to the 3,746 local Red Cross chapters and for general administrative expense, only 2½% of the fund being used for the latter.

The Chicago area quota has been determined at $2,550,000, according to the announcement of Wade Fetzer, the Chicago Area general chairman. More than one-half of this amount will go toward maintaining the services of the Chicago chapter, the largest single Red Cross chapter in the country. The Chicago chapter serves Cook and DuPage counties, the lower half of Lake county, Illinois, and the lower half of Lake county, Ind., and hence the large Chicago area budget requirements. In this area are the U. S. Naval Training Station, Fort Sheridan, several military hospitals and at Hines, Ill., one of the nation's largest veterans hospitals.

Organized humanitarianism

The Red Cross is "organized humanitarianism" and the true story of the Red Cross is not told in figures and in records, but in the lives of those who have known its help. The story is still contained in the role of binding up the wounds of the injured; in helping veterans and servicemen and their families; in sheltering, feeding and clothing the homeless; in helping to rebuild broken lives and in restoring the victims of the violent blows of war and nature.

Arlington Heights fund chairman, Nat Burfeind, stated that the local drive which officially began March 1, will extend throughout the month of March and that Red Cross fund workers will receive their supplies through their local captains by the end of this week. Mr. Burfeind stated that the local drive will reach its peak about mid-month and that in his opinion, Arlington Heights will, as always, provide its share of the funds to help the Red Cross "carry on."

Julian Gromer, well known photographer, traveler and lecturer, will present colorful movies of Mexico in the last program of the Arlington lecture series this Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Arlington high school auditorium. Many residents in this area have seen his rare movies of other parts of the globe in the past. Accompanied by a background of soft native music, movies of Mexico will depict the country at school, work and play, ornamental cathedrals, snow capped mountains, the pyramids, market day at Toluca, Independence Day celebration in Mexico City, bull fights and other interesting sights that hundreds of visitors travel to Mexico every year to see. Student tickets are 50 cents, general admission $1.00.

The Federal Sign Co. has court authority to turn on the advertising signs on the two Zenith towers at Mt. Prospect, but is hesitating to do so because of the possibility that the village may ultimately win a reversal from the Supreme Court over the decision of Judge Harry M. Fisher of the Superior court. If such a reversal is given by the higher court, the village could collect $100 a day for every day that the municipal code is violated.

Court ok's Zenith sign but it remains dark

The Federal Sign Co. has court authority to turn on the advertising signs on the two Zenith towers at Mt. Prospect, but is hesitating to do so because of the possibility that the village may ultimately win a reversal from the Supreme Court over the decision of Judge Harry M. Fisher of the Superior court. If such a reversal is given by the higher court, the village could collect $100 a day for every day that the municipal code is violated.

On the complaint of a resident on the newly renamed Windsor Drive, the village will replace signs labeled "Three States Highway" with "Windsor Drive" in order that delivery trucks can locate the renamed street.

The contractor who did not properly repair Patton ave. after working on that street, will be required to make good.

Clerks and judges who will serve at the village election are:

District No. 1: Judges: Mrs.

Two men were fatally injured and another escaped with minor injuries at noon Sunday when the automobile in which they were riding skidded out of control in passing another car near the intersection of U. S. route 20 and Bartlett road, swerved into a ditch, and side-swiped a pole.

The Girl Scouts of Arlington Heights will observe the anniversary on Monday, March 10 by an inter-troop birthday party at the Field house after school.

There will be a song fest, a candle-lighting ceremony as each Girl Scout places her own pennies in the Juliette Low birthday box, followed by movies and refreshments.

The first Girl Scout troop was organized in Savannah, Georgia, on March 12, 1912, by the late Juliette Gordon Low, who had become deeply interested in it through her friendship with Lord Robert Baden-Powell, originator of the Scouting movement for both boys and girls. The idea of Girl Scouting caught on quickly that before the end of 1912 troops were springing up in various parts of the country. Today, 35 years later, Girl Scouting is carried on in 8,300 communities with a total membership of 1,218,000.

Girl Scouting was introduced in Arlington Heights four years ago and according to latest statistics, now has a membership of 250. The work of the organization is carried on entirely by volunteers.

The women (and men, too) who have helped the Girl Scouts reach their present status as the largest organization for the girls in the world should receive a vote of appreciation. Tribute is paid to them at this time. For it is because of them that Girl Scouting has gone forward.

The Arlington Heights Girl Scout Council voices the hope of the organization that the anniversary celebration will attract the attention of many more adults and bring them to a greater realization of what youth service through Girl Scouting may mean.

The suggested ban on all day parking in the Arlington loop area did not get a rise out of a single person. No business or community has signified that he has any objection to the recommendation of the committee that only 90 minute parking be allowed throughout the business district.

When President Franzon of the Chamber of Commerce inquired at the annual meeting of that organization last week if the business men had anything to say on the parking subject, not a voice was heard.

The municipal committee will meet some time Saturday to prepare its final report to the village board.

Mayor C. C. Coddell told the board members Monday night that he favored strict enforcement of any parking ordinance that may be passed.

Apparently the autoists who have been using the business streets for all day parking think the proposed parking ban is just another "flash in the pan."

Allergies - - - Causes and Effect

by C. W. LUSSMAN of SIEBURG PHARMACY

Diseases of the nose are quite common, the best example perhaps in hay fever; but there are many others, seasonal or continual, that are not so easily detected.

Sensory allergies come from pollen; continual allergies are caused by bacteria, dust, chemicals, or food.

Allergy not only affects the nose but also all tissues of the body which will react to the allergic substance, causing rash or itching in many cases.

In determining the cause and relief of any allergy expert medical advice should be sought.

Self medication may do more harm than good so rely on the advice of a dependable doctor and druggist for the best in medication.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 2, was:

"CHRIST JESUS"

The Golden Text was:

"Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor. The mighty God, the everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace" (Isa. 9: 6).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:

"The next day John sees Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world . . . Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!" . . . One of the two which heard him speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ" (John 1: 29-36, 40-41).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The advent of Jesus of Nazareth marked the first century of the Christian era, but the Christ is without beginning of years or end of days. Throughout all generations both before and after the Christian era, the Christ, as the spiritual idea—the reflection of God,—has come with some measure of power and grace to all prepared to receive Christ, Truth . . . The Christ is incorporeal, spiritual,—yea the divine image and likeness, dispelling the illusions of the senses; the Way, the Truth, and the Life, healing the sick and casting out evils, destroying sin, disease and death" (pp. 333, 322).

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Arlington Heights, dedicated the building in which its services have been held since February, 1929, with two services on March 2. It marked the cancelling of all indebtedness against the church which was started twenty years ago.

On February 1, 1927, a group of students of Christian Science met to organize a society that would be recognized as a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The organization was consummated on Feb. 15, 1927, and the newly formed society held its first service on February 20, 1927, in the assembly hall of the South school. The society was officially recognized by the Mother Church on July 1, 1927.

The statutory affidavit completing the incorporation of the Society was filed on February 8, 1929. The building at the southeast corner of North Dunton ave. at Fremont St. had been purchased by the Society and, after extensive interior remodeling and decorating, the first services were held in it in the early summer of 1929.

Steady growth was manifested and, having fulfilled the necessary requirements, the Society made application to the Mother Church for recognition as First Church of Christ, Scientist, Arlington Heights. This recognition was granted in October, 1944.

The Prospect Heights curtain cleaning establishment, L-Nor Cleaners has new proprietors. Messrs. Louis Sadecky and Virgil Rolfs have purchased the plant from Mr. and Mrs. Jennrich. The establishment was opened eight years ago and has grown to such proportions that housewives for many towns of this area depend upon L-Nor Cleaners to keep their curtains and drapes in proper shape.

The Jennrichs are going to take a vacation and are leaving for California March 13. They will return a month later. Mr. Jennrich as commander of the Legion Post wants to be on hand to shoulder his share of responsibility for the annual Mardi Gras that takes place April 12.

When told he was too young to retire, he said "I am not feeling as spry as I should and the time to take a vacation, and I am taking it."

The new proprietors are residents of Arlington Heights. They will maintain the class of service maintained by the former owners and with a second truck in service expect to extend operations. Mr. and Mrs. Jennrich have asked this paper to express their thanks to all their friends and customers. "It has been a pleasure to serve them," says Mr. Jennrich, "and I feel that I am leaving the business in good hands."

Income From Milk
Milk as a source of cash farm income was 14 per cent of all farm income in 1945—larger than hogs, over twice wheat or eggs, and three times cotton or tobacco. One out of every 15 families is dependent on milk for a livelihood. More than 26 million cows on three-fourths of the nation's 5,877,000 farms produce milk.

Arlington scout given Eagle rank at ceremony

by ARNOLD HATCH

Officers and scouts of Blackhawk District, N. W. Suburban Council, held Court of Honor at North school, Friday evening, February 28 to honor David Kurtz and Dick Morrow, also to present badges and awards to advancing scouts.

Wally DeBuh, Ass't. Scout Executive, N. W. S. Council, paid high tribute to David Kurtz of Troop No. 7 for his unceasing efforts and determination to win the highest of all scout honors the Eagle Award. George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, continued Wally, would both have been Eagle Scouts if scouting had been available to them as boys, because their high ideals were very much the same as those of our present day scouts. Wally complimented Oscar and Mrs. Kurtz for their cooperation and encouragement to Dave in his achieving the most coveted of all scout awards. Mrs. Kurtz proudly pinned the gold Eagle on the uniform of Dave who in return happily pinned a miniature gold Eagle on his mother's dress. Dave's dad Oscar, who is a member of the N.W.S. Council executive board, received the Eagle's jewel case from Wally who smilingly explained that part of the ceremony was according to old custom.

Dick Morrow of Troop 7 had won his Eagle which requires 21 awards in March 1946 said Wally, but having reached this goal and knowing that such awards as Eagle Bronze, Silver and Gold palms still lay ahead on the scout trail of advancement, did by outstanding hard work and study acquire five more awards thus winning the Eagle Bronze Palm.

Wally congratulated Dick's parents for their part in encouraging him and presented the Bronze Palm to Dick's dad who proudly pinned it on Dick's uniform.

A feature of the program was colored movies of Scouts on a ten day canoe trip at White Sand Lake, Wisconsin, and activities at Oskosh Council Permanent Camp. Al Baker, Council Camp Commissioner, announced that a limited number of N.W.S. Council Scouts will be permitted to attend this beautiful camp this summer for ten days at a cost of $17.00 per Scout plus bus fare.

Awards made to advancing Scouts are:

Seven day Camping awards, Troop-7: David Kurtz, Dick Morrow, Thomas Cleaver, Wm. Cutler, Frank Deigl, Gerhardt Deininger, John Deininger, LeRoy Fredericks, Ronald Grace, Edward Hunsinger, Haywood Johnson, Robert Loehner, David Meinke, Blythe Morrow, Edward Hunsinger, Martin Freeman S. M., George Clark A. S. M. George Clark Jr. A. S. M. Merit Badges, Troop-7: Thomas Cleaver, Stamp Collecting: Harold Dotts, Rocks and Minerals; Gerhardt Deininger, Woodwork; David Meineke, Plumbing, Weather, Camping, Dog Care; Jay Vanter, Stamp Collecting:

Troop-23: Dick Brown, Cycling; Dick Vonkampen, Cycling.

Troop-32: Donald Havraneck, Cycling, Safety, Scholarship; Norman Stadler, Pioneering, Chemistry.

Troop-37: Kenneth Gronert, Rocks and Minerals, Chemistry.

First Class: Troop-7, Gerhardt Deininger.

Troop-32: Andrew Cochrane, Bruce Collard, Warren Lattof, Don P. Neuses.

Second Class: Troop-7, James Lee, Troop-23, Bob Fasick.

Among Scout officers participating in program are:

Bob Blackburn, Dist. Chairman, Richard Morrow, T-7, Committee-man; Marty Freeman, T-7, Scoutmaster; Vern Sturm, T-32, Chairman; Art Cubley, T-32, Scoutmaster.

Present plans call for Orchard to become the largest airport in the world.

Ralph H. Burke, airport consultant for the city, has submitted two plans to the CAA. Each calls for the construction of 12 tangential runways. Plan No. 1 calls for the runways to be limited to 6,150 feet, while Plan No. 2 calls for 8,000 foot runways.

The shorter runways would require 4,456 acres of land, Burke estimated, while the longer proposal would require 6,904 acres.

Estimated cost for the shorter airport would be $64,000,000, as compared to $72,000,000 for the other.

The plans were submitted to the CAA, said Burke, since a portion of the costs are to be borne by the government. Burke attached a request to the proposals that the CAA place a limit on runway lengths.

"This fixing of limits for runway lengths is of greater moment for aviation than any other single objective," Burke wrote.

Burke cited the danger that with the continued enlargement of aircraft, many airports might become obsolete before they are amortized. The size of Orchard airport, as projected in the plan for longer runways, will be ten times that of the present Municipal Airport.

Hybrid Corn
In 1945 more than 38 million acres were planted to hybrid corn varieties, according to the department of agriculture. Since 1938, when 15 per cent of the corn acreage was planted to hybrids, there has been an increase each year of from 5.7 per cent to 8.6 per cent, or close to 7 million acres. In the corn belt states, hybrids are estimated to have increased yields at least 20 per cent over the open-pollinated varieties.

Propose 9-point program for good of state autoists

A nine-point legislative program for the State of Illinois was announced today by Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

The proposed laws are designed to meet the most important complaints that have been received from the Club's members. In some cases the material was prepared at the request of the members of the legislature and all of these bills will be turned over to law makers who have shown a particular interest in the subject at introduction at the present meeting of the Legislature.

Briefly summarized, the proposals are as follows:

1. SPEED TRAPS. It would require that arrests for speeding be made by an officer in uniform, or in a plainly marked police vehicle and prohibit the use of measured distances as evidence in speeding violations.

2. PARKING METER REVENUE. In a number of municipalities of Illinois parking meters are providing substantial revenue in excess of the cost of operating the machines. The Motor Club's proposal would provide that this money received in this manner can only be used for the purchase, maintenance and incidental cost of operating the machines, and for the creation and operation of free municipal parking grounds.

3. "DRIVE YOURSELF" AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE. A marked contrast exists between

'L'enfant du diable' gives warning first

Maybe at some time you've done the wrong thing when a skunk had you in range. Then you can skip the next paragraph for you know all about it. But otherwise:

"Those who have never smelt it may realize some of its power if they imagine a mixture of strong ammonia, essence of garlic, burning sulphur, a volume of sewer gas, a vitriol spray, a dash of perfume musk, all mixed together and intensified a thousand times. This will give a faint, far, washed-out idea of skunk musk, of which the active principle is a sulphide called mercaptan."

Thus does Ernest Thompson Seton describe the powerful weapon of this friendly but fearsome little denizen of the ridges.

All members of the weasel family, to which the skunk belongs, are equipped with musk-secreting glands beneath their tails, but in the skunk this weapon reaches its ne plus ultra stage. Indeed, in some of the other weasels, if not in most, it hardly can be classed as a weapon.

The glands, two in number, secrete a clear, golden-yellow fluid, distinctly phosphorescent in the dark, and having a violent acid reaction. It causes swelling of any mucous membrane which it may touch, results in awful nausea should any of it enter the lungs of a victim, and often causes convulsions. It may cause blindness, should a skunk hit its target full in the eyes.

The distance to which his fearful "shots" can be thrown varies from 6 to 14 feet, and a down wind target probably would suffer a direct hit at even greater distance. What's more, Bre'r Skunk's double-barreled derringer is also a repeater, with each barrel able to fire as many as six rounds. And said derringer also has selective triggers, so that its owner can fire either barrel first, or both at once.

Grievous indeed is the error of man or animal who thinks the polecat fires straight backward. The motor club believes that better enforcement will result in minor violations.

8. ANTI-DIVERSION. This proposal is in the form of a joint resolution which if passed by both Houses of the Legislature would be submitted to the voters as an amendment to the Illinois Constitution. Specifically it provides that revenue from special taxes levied upon motorists must be used for the benefit of those motorists.

9. VOTING ON CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS. Under the Illinois Constitution as presently provided, a proposed amendment can be adopted only if it has been approved by a majority of the total number of voters who have voted in any general election. The proposed change would simply provide that any political party may state its position upon a proposed constitutional amendment and provide that this position be indicated upon the ballot under the party appellation. Thus a vote in the "party circle" would be counted as a vote for or against in accordance with the position of the party. It is felt that this suggestion would eliminate the great difficulty that has been experienced in amending Illinois Constitution. At the present time such amendments are contained in a special section of the large ballot and great many of the voters overlook them. By not casting a vote they are in effect voting against the proposal.

'Earth can turn to fire but not too soon'

Modern nuclear science has demonstrated that under certain circumstances the earth "is capable of turning into fire."

That observation, accompanied by the reassurance that we need not worry much about such an occurrence in our time, was made by Karl K. Darrow, physicist of Bell Telephone Laboratories and lecturer-author, in the opening lecture of the annual Norman Wait Harris lecture series at Northwestern University. He spoke on "Atomic Energy" before a gathering of students and townspeople in Scott hall on the Evanston campus.

"Speaking of the instability of matter, I do not want to scare you by implying that this world or any substantial part of it is suddenly going to vanish," Dr. Darrow said. "It is, however, a fact that during the last few decades the physicist has come to realize that matter is not quite permanent."

"Matter is capable, indeed, not of vanishing into nothingness, but of turning into something new and strange and fiery. In the language of the ancients we might say that under certain circumstances, earth is capable of turning into fire."

Among the atomic facts disclosed by Dr. Darrow:

Physicists have established a new unit for measuring nuclear mass and "it takes 600,000 millions of millions of millions of these units to make up one gram, the twenty-eighth part of an ounce."

"Atoms are so small that it takes 100,000,000 of them, laid side by side, to extend over a linear inch. Nuclei are so much smaller yet, that it would take 100,000 of them to span the diameter of an atom."

Neutrons and protons inside the atom have properties in common with the earth: they rotate on an axis and they are magnets.

These tiny bodies circle and spin, and make collisions with each other of which the consequences are described by physicists as closely as though they had before them the report of a traffic accident.

These descriptions defy the old notion of the solidity of solid matter and the deadness of dead weight."

Border Ancient Decoration

The border is one of the earliest elements found in decorative arts. In primitive drawings it was a simple line which marked the edge of the decorative area. It becomes ornate, as seen in Egyptian and Greek art. In tapestries, rugs and textiles it became a part of the design.

Lombard woman finds cache of 1865 letters in antique mailbox

Chief to arrest 'fire fans' who flaunt the law

If you're a fire fan and can't still once the fire siren blows, you're cordially invited to the fire—but only if you mind your incendiary etiquette!

In several recent instances Fire Chief Carl Ladenbord of Glenview has been confronted with unwelcome "guests" who interfered with the progress of the firefighters. Last week he turned the matter over to Chief of Police George Kilroy, who in turn has instructed his men to issue arrest tickets to all offenders of the following law:

"If you're a fire fan and can't still once the fire siren blows, you're cordially invited to the fire—but only if you mind your incendiary etiquette!"

The letter was one of several Mrs. Landrude found in the mailbox. She sent the others to the Chicago Historical Society, which expressed great interest in looking them over as a welcome addition to its files for the period.

Wisconsin army officer writes

The letter also had a timely Lincoln's birthday angle, though the reference was more exactly to the time of the assassination. It was written by a U. S. Army lieutenant, Dwight Jackson, just arrived on April 17, 1865, at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., after a troop train trip from Madison, Wis., with Co. B, 32nd. It was addressed to a Mrs. Harace T. Adams of Hartford, Wis.

The historical reference in the missive follows:

"The people and the soldiers will unite in traitor now as fast as they catch them—and Andy Rebs to deal with that 'Old Abe' ever was. Some people here in St. Louis gave three cheers upon the news of Lincoln's death but they did not live but a few moments. There were several shot right down in the street."

She had been ill four years and since last April, Mr. White had devoted his entire time to her care. As has been customary in recent years, members of the Methodist and Presbyterian ladies aids had remembered her on her birthday, but she hardly seemed to realize they were there.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Lauterburg & Oehler chapel with interment in Genesee, Ill., the former home of the Whites.

Fannie White was born in Seineco, Canada, February 19, 1857. She came to Genesee and August 22, 1882, married Frank White. They came to Arlington Heights in 1888. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends from Chicago and Blue Island. In addition to her husband she leaves five nieces and two nephews.

Funeral services for Berger F. Christiansen of Mt. Prospect were held last Saturday, at 2 p.m., from the Medill Lutheran church in Chicago. A military service in charge of the Mt. Prospect Post 1337, of which Mr. Christiansen was commander, was held at the Acacia cemetery before the interment.

Mr. Christiansen was born January 23, 1897 in Bergen, Norway, and came to this country when he was ten years old. June 28, 1924 he married Sylvia Olson of Chicago. They lived in Mt. Prospect the past seven years, living in Des Plaines for eight years previous to coming to Mt. Prospect. Mr. Christiansen had been employed with the American Can Company in Chicago for the past 35 years. He passed away February 26 at the Vaughan hospital after a six months illness.

ADOLPH A. HORN
 In loving memory of our dear husband and father who passed away two years ago March 8, 1945.

The flowers we place upon your grave, May wither and decay; But love for you who sleeps beneath,

Will never fade away. Our hearts still ache with loneliness,

Our eyes shed many a tear; God alone knows how much we miss you,

As it ends the second sad year.

Loving Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear son, brother and brother-in-law, 1st Lt. Wilbert H. Giesecke, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, who was reported missing March 8, 1945, near Eribub Atoll, Marshall Islands.

If you had not been so good and kind,

Your going perhaps we'd not mind too great.

But as it is, we feel a void, an ache

That time alone will never dissipate.

A bird in flight takes wing and goes

To where—no one ever knows.

And you, dear Will, went that way, too.

Far, far up into the blue—

And left us here alone to grieve,

Instead with you we'd wish to leave.

Mem. Dad, Brother and Sister-in-law.

Local performers in concert March 16

Elmer D. Herrick, formerly of Arlington Heights, and Raymond E. Gaitsch are announcing this week the Tenth Annual Concert of the DePaul Music Studio which they now own and operate. The program will involve 300 students of guitar, accordion, piano and voice, many of whom are local residents.

Hundreds of people have attended the concert program held in Des Plaines, Arlington Hts., and Palatine in the years before the war; now, with the Chicago studio and a larger teaching staff, a much larger and more varied program can be presented.

The program, to be held at Steinmetz high school, 3030 N. Mobile ave., Chicago, March 16, will begin promptly at 3:00 p.m. and will be streamlined to 90 musical minutes.

Outstanding feature of the show will be the 200 piece guitar orchestra, nearly half of which will consist of electric guitars, with the hula chorus of 20 dancing girls. There will be an accordion band, a select group of accordion duet and trio groups, a sprinkling of piano solos by outstanding students, several vocal selections of timely interest. Everything possible is being done to keep the program fast moving, interesting and scenically beautiful throughout.

The deceased was born November 5, 1871 in Des Plaines. She is survived by her sons John, Arthur and William, and a daughter-in-law, Lydia. Reverend Allen Fedder will be in charge of the funeral services today, Thursday, at 2:30 p.m., for Mrs. Minnie Standke of Hawthorne Lane, Des Plaines. Friday night the center of attention in prep basketball will be on Woodstock where the number one and number two teams in the state will be battling it out in the regional final. Last week we commented on the injustice of sending these two cage greats into the same starting tournament when either would have traveled no greater a distance had one been sent to the weak Aurora or DeKalb regionals. Anyway they were not and so it will be just as good a battle Friday as any game at the state finals. The pity of it is that only 1100 people can see the game due to the small seating capacity.

Picked winners in all Wauconda district games

Last week we made some tournament predictions. We picked the winner in every one of the eight games in the Wauconda district. This week the going gets a bit tougher in the regionals but we stand by last week's guesses.

Two regulars out Palatine pessimistic

Whatever hopes Palatine had of making a creditable showing against Elgin in the first round at Woodstock went glimmering Monday night when it was learned that Gustafson, regular guard, was sick in bed with the flu after Bob Birks, regular forward, had thrown a trick knee out of joint in practice and incapacitated himself.

Holt and Huffman ic Dubuque U.

Dubuque University won the Iowa college conference basketball championship. Next year they should have a good chance to repeat for they are going to get real reinforcements from the Northeast conference. According to reliable authority Don Holt, Crystal Lake's conference scoring record breaker, a six foot six center, and Huffman, classy Leyden high center, are both going to Dubuque University to school next fall.

Twenty years ago when your columnist was finishing college in an Iowa conference school Dubuque U. did not even play intercollegiate athletics. A new regime in management came later and the school has been a consistent league winner in all sports. Much of their strength has come from athletes who have gone there from the Chicago Suburban area.

By the way we are told that Don Holt ranks about 8th in scholarship, in a class of over 150 at Crystal Lake high.

Northeast announces league meet

The Northeast conference announces that their track and field meet will be held under lights at Niles township high school on the evening of Tuesday May 20. This is between the weekends of the district and state meets.

Coaches meet to schedule spring sports

Northeast conference coaches will meet at Wauconda Monday night to discuss officials for next year's basketball schedule and to act on the baseball schedule voted by the principals recently. Track meets will be scheduled and date and place of the league meet set. A proposal to stage a league golf tournament will also be up for consideration. Dan Werner of Grant is president of the N. W. coaches with E. R. Kessler of Wauconda, secretary.

50 schools invited to Palatine relays

Dundee and Crystal Lake win openers at Woodstock meet

SEMI-FINALS

Thursday

FINALS

Friday

Prediction? Dundee vs. Elgin, 8:00.

In Illinois Tuesday night at Woodstock, Dundee started slowly but gained momentum as the game progressed to rout McHenry's good ball club 75-24.

Dundee's score by quarters was 10, 22, 25 and 18, with Bud Grover erging 19 points and Jim Schulte and Don Schuberg getting 18 apiece. Carl Neiss got 10 for McHenry.

Crystal Lake's Northeast champion Tigers had to come from behind to whip Woodstock and their zone defense 44-32. Play-however, the number of events had greatly increased and metals will mean an outlay of about $200.00. As a result the entry fees will be boosted.

Much larger attendance both of competing teams and spectators is anticipated. Two fine trophies are now on display at Palatine high to be awarded the class "B" and class "A" winners. Schools in class "B" will be those having an enrollment under 350.

Last year 22 schools were entered in the meet won by Arlington in class "A" and Geneva in class "B".

Lakers tourney hopes dimmed

With big Dan Holt sick with the flu Crystal Lake has become just another good ball team in the Woodstock regional. Unless Holt returns to action against Dundee in the semi-finals Thursday deLacey's Cardinals will go on a rebounding and scoring spree in what would otherwise have been a really tough ball game for the state's number one ball club.

Crystal Lake looked anything but a regional threat against Woodstock and their fans sounded like anything but good sports while Woodstock was leading them, which was most of the game except the final quarter.

Two of the state's top ranking officials, Lieberson of Chicago and Johnson of Batavia, were consistently booted by the Crystal Lake crowd which seemed to be in a disappointed frame of mind.

Dundee is ready for tourney grind

The story goes that deLacey of Dundee took his regulars to Woodstock one afternoon a few weeks ago and scrimmaged them 15 quarters to see which ones were really in shape to stand the tourney grind. They played five quarters against Lake Forest, then five against St. Marys and finally five against Woodstock. After two solid hours of playing Schulte, Schuberg and Paruccci were still going strong so it looks like Dundee is ready to go all the way through physically if they can just get enough points when they need them. The Dundee final Friday night will be as good a game and with just as much at stake as any at Champaign two weeks hence.

Bennie's Bisons placed two men, Thollander and Borg, on the first all Northwest conference basketball team.

Ela's champs had two first team selections in Grever and Seeman. Palatine's center, Kolze, tied with Thollander for second in the balloting of the coaches with Kocher of Barrington ranking first. Kocher got a first team vote for a guard position from every coach in the league. Borg, Seeman, and Grever received the same number of votes so six men are placed on the first squad.

Walter Kocher was the best guard in the league and broke the league scoring record with 209 points in 14 games. At times Kocher kept Barrington going almost singlehanded and his great year had a lot to do with Barrington's second place finish. Bob Thollander, Bensenville's ace scorer, who tallied 185 points is a junior and scored 33 points in one game for a league record.

Tied with Thollander in the coaches voting was Dick Kolze, the Palatine guard who moved up to center this year to score 172 points. Kolze was the best defensive player in the conference and one of his faults was that he did not shoot enough, preferring to pass off to teammates. Kolze had a remarkable free throwing record to lead the league with 60 good ones out of less than 100 tries.

Orville Grever and Bill Seeman of Ela were the boys who provided the scoring punch for the league champs. Grever was an excellent rebounder on defense and a good team leader. Seeman was a consistent scorer especially in the last half of the season when the team needed more punch with the departure of Mertes. Don Borg, who received all league third rating last year, was the Bison's most consistent player.

Jones and Pepper top second team selections

Dan Jones of Antioch and Dick Pepper of Palatine tied for 7th in the voting of the coaches and top the second team selections. Jones scored a lot of points but was not as consistent as last year when he played center. Pepper, a junior, was a tough boy when the chips were down and came through with brilliant ball on numerous occasions. Bob Littfin, Ela's speedy guard, was ninth in

Jim Vuglar's great improvement at center for Bensenville was the big reason that the Bisons came up to third place at the end of the season. Vuglar was the 10th place winner in the voting. Haiman of Grant, Fields of Antioch and Doenecke of Barrington each got two votes while Schildgen of Northbrook got one and this trio are added to round out an eight man second squad.

Orville Grever and Bill Seeman of Ela were the boys who provided the scoring punch for the league champs. Grever was an

Jim Vuglar's great improvement at center for Bensenville was the big reason that the Bisons came up to third place at the end of the season. Vuglar was the 10th place winner in the voting. Haiman of Grant, Fields of Antioch and Doenecke of Barrington each got two votes while Schildgen of Northbrook got one and this trio are added to round out an eight man second squad.

Orville Grever and Bill Seeman of Ela were the boys who provided the scoring punch for the league champs. Grever was an excellent rebounder on defense and a good team leader. Seeman was a consistent scorer especially in the last half of the season when the team needed more punch with the departure of Mertes. Don Borg, who received all league third rating last year, was the Bison's most consistent player.

Jones and Pepper top second team selections

Dan Jones of Antioch and Dick Pepper of Palatine tied for 7th in the voting of the coaches and top the second team selections. Palatine ends 20-game schedule with 35-29 victory over Zion

Palatine finished their 20 game schedule Friday night at Zion with a 35-29 victory, the 13th as against seven defeats. The Pirates were playing one of their best games of the season Friday. Zion has been a consistent winner this year numbering among their conquests a pair of victories over Ela, the Northwest champs.

Strong defensive work, in which Kolze, stood out, featured Palatine's playing at Zion. Balanced scoring with Pepper getting 10, Zoellick and Birke seven each, and Gustafson six helped the Pirates to come out on top. A dead eye at the free throw line with nine points out of 11 tries helped plenty.

Zion appeared to be off in their basket shooting. Eagle, their star center, did not get tall in the first half but finally wound up the game with eight points. Sieloff, guard, also counted eight. Palatine took a 13-10 lead in a very close first half and never was behind thereafter though Zion was always within striking distance.

Zion's junior varsity was much too strong for Palatine's reserve team though varsity subs played much of the game for Palatine. Christopher, who scored 10 points to lead Zion to a 27-15 victory also helped out in the varsity game with two baskets. Ride-nor also scored 10 points. Orzolek scored 11 of Palatine's 15 points.

Zion is on a two year contract with the Pirates and will play a return game at Palatine next season.

ance in this vicinity is sponsored by the Northwest Suburban Lutheran Teachers' Conference.

More benefits to gold star children

The Illinois Veterans Commission today called attention to benefits provided by state law for the survivors of servicemen who died in the Armed Forces during World War II.

Under the Illinois bonus program the beneficiary of deceased veterans dying in service between September 16, 1940 and September 3, 1945, will be paid $900 in cash. The state Service Recognition board now is setting up machinery for payment of the bonus.

When the bonus board has completed arrangements the $900 payment will be made to the deceased serviceman's next of kin in the order of husband or wife, child or children, mother, father, person standing in loco parentis, and brothers and sisters.

Another benefit under state law is that providing $150 a year for the education of deceased veteran's children between the ages of 16 and 22. These children also are eligible to receive scholarships at the various state educational institutions.

Existence of these benefits were pointed out by the commission in connection with its current program to contact the next of kin of all Illinois servicemen who died during the last war.

One of the aims of this program is to determine whether all school children eligible for these benefits are receiving them. In making such a determination, the commission desires to record the names, ages and birth dates of all children of deceased Illinois veterans of the last war.

In this area, headquarters for this campaign located in the IVC service office at 210 N. Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights.

Advance ticket sale
for garden show
now in progress

The advance ticket sale is now in progress for the National Flower and Garden Show to be held at International Amphitheater in Chicago, March 16 to 23rd.

Advance tickets may be purchased at a saving up until Mar. 12 at florist shops, from garden and business clubs, and at the National Flower Show office, 600 South Michigan ave.

Tickets to the show, which will attract exhibits and visitors from all over the country, will cost 85¢ (tax included) up until Mar. 12, which admission at the gate will be $1.20. The big National Flower Show—the first since 1942—will bring to Chicago a fortune in flowers from all over the country, and many professional growers will compete for honors and prizes. It is sponsored by the Society of American Florists & Ornamental Horticulturists and is the outstanding exhibition of the floral world.

In the future

THINGS TO COM—A camera which develops its own pictures a minute after they are taken. A turn of the knob produces a positive print in permanent form. The camera contains no tanks; the picture comes out dry and requires no additional processing. Polaroid Corp. is producing it. A movie camera, you do not wind. It is electrically operated from a battery in the carrying case.

An automatic car lock for automobiles. It consists of a spring-loaded plunger, which automatically locks the rear door when the front door is closed.

It can be used only on four-door cars which are locked to the same centerposts.

A lightweight fan with a three speed motor for drawing in or exhausting air. It can be suspended from the window at an angle to force air upwards or down.

A hand vacuum cleaner for automobile upholstery which obtains its power through an attachment to the windshield wiper hose.

A thermostatic fire alarm, which may be placed in any room. It sounds when heat rises beyond a set point.

Vegetables furnish Vitamins

Many vegetables furnish vitamin C. For instance, one medium-sized raw bell pepper if eaten raw will supply an individual's vitamin C for a day. The pepper may be cut up in a salad, or cut in strips and served with salt and pepper, as you would green onions or radishes.

the House overrules the supreme court

Although a lot of folks are still thinking about winter and the snow that goes with it, many a person is starting to think about that garden for this coming summer along with the flowers he, or she, wants to see blooming around the yard. Needless to say many a person is also thinking about dogs running through their garden, and in general making pests of themselves.

As a passing thought on the subject — to those of you who own dogs, remember that those folks who don't have a dog are entitled to just as much consideration about their gardens and yards as you, and perhaps just a little bit more if you want them to still keep a good opinion of man's best friend.

Many dog owners would do well to look into the subject of their village laws regarding dogs, for in most cases if a dog is permitted to run loose and make a general nuisance of himself the animal can be picked up by the local authorities and the dog owner fined. If it happens too often the animal can be destroyed as a public nuisance.

What brought all of this on was the fact that in recent weeks many comments have been made to the dog editor about the failure of dog owners to keep their dogs on a leash when they have them out walking, or confine them to the owner's own property when they are loose.

A little effort on both sides of the fence to understand the issue will help the matter out and bring about a better feeling between those folks who own a dog and those who do not.

Dog's usefulness

It is interesting to note that by far the largest number of America's dogs earn their keep by rendering useful services for their owners. By way of proof, it need only be pointed out that of the nation's estimated dog population of 15,000,000, almost eleven million live with families in rural districts — on farms, ranches, and in small towns. Here for the most part they have their special chores — such as keeping an eye on the sheep, bringing in the cows, keeping watch on the home premises, etc. — chores which would otherwise take up the time and energy of a member of the family or the hired man.

Civil service

A Federal civil service examination for the position of Librarian for duty in various Federal agencies in the States of Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin was announced today by the Director, Seventh U. S. Civil Service Region, New Post Office Building, Chicago 7, Illinois, or the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners in any first or second class post office.

Application forms and further information may be obtained from the Regional Director, 7th U. S. Civil Service Region, New Post Office Building, Chicago 7, Illinois, or the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners in any first or second class post office.

Applications must be filed with the Regional Director no later than March 11, 1947.

Questions on GI bill

Question: What types of loans may a veteran secure under the loan provisions of the GI Bill?

Answer: A veteran may secure the following types of loans:

1. (a) Loan for the purchase of residential property, or construction of a dwelling on unimproved property owned by the veteran, to be occupied by him as his home.

(b) Repairs, alterations or improvements to or payment of delinquent indebtedness, taxes, or special assessments on residential property owned by the veteran as his home.

2. (a) Purchase of land, buildings, live stock, equipment, machinery or implements in farming operations conducted by the veteran;

(b) Purchase of a business, land, buildings, supplies, equipment, machinery or tools to be used by the Veteran in pursuing a gainful occupation.

Question: Where do I apply for such loans?

Answer: Apply to your local bank or lending agency for application and advice on loans. It is then necessary to apply to the Veterans Administration for approval or certification. You have up to ten years after the termination of the war to take advantage of the loan provisions of the G. I. Bill.

Esther Nichols weds William Wilk

A pretty wedding took place Saturday, March 3, when Mr. William Wilk, youngest son of Mrs. S. Wilk and Miss Esther O. Nichols, both of Meacham were quietly married at Wheaton. The wedding celebration was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Darwin Baker near Meacham. The bride's gown was of white organdy crepe. Mr. and Mrs. Wilk will reside on the farm last occupied by the late John Gorrell. — 1917 —

Shermerville raises saloon fee

The regular meeting of the Shermerville village board was held Monday evening. All members present and Attorney Preschern acting as clerk in absence of clerk A. F. Therrien who was attending urgent business at Indianapolis. The saloon license ordinance raising the fee to $750 was passed and becomes effective May 1, 1917. — 1917 —

Farm brings big price

Wm. Nightingale has sold his 57 acre farm in the Deer Grove Forest Preserve district for over $150 an acre and had such sale been prior to the recent condemnation proceedings the farmers would have had such strong evidence as to the real value of the land, that the prices allowed in said proceedings might have been considerably higher.

Mr. Nightingale received $9,000 for the place, which is $2300 more than he paid for it two years ago. The purchaser is a Mr. Gehrs of Chicago. Mr. Nightingale has purchased a home in Barrington. — 1917 —

Millinery opening in Palatine

Miss Clara Wentz, Palatine, announces that her spring opening will take place Saturday, March 17, at which time she will be delighted to show the very latest in styles for women's headwear. Madam Style says that the ladies must use care in the selection of their hats for 1917 as the shapes will have very little trimming, and the shape is the important item that must be considered above all else in choosing your hat for spring. — 1917 —

Fire auto truck for Palatine

Palatine's fire fighting equipment may boast of an auto truck in the near future if the present plans of the fire company materialize. That body sent a committee to the village board Monday evening and submitted a proposition for the purchase of such equipment. The fire and water committee are now considering the matter.

It is proposed to purchase a Ford chassis, equip it with a body and other special appliances that will accommodate the chemical tank, hose and firemen. — 1917 —

Albert Stahl at his farm at Aptakisic Friday, while trying to hitch up a young horse was struck on the head several times and knocked down and was in a dazed condition some time. It was feared for a time that he might be severely injured, but he has already recovered from the effects. Poultry association elects officers

Arlington Heights Poultry Association held their annual meeting and election at the Village Hall Tuesday evening, Feb. 28. The reports of the various officers showed the financial affairs of the association to be in good shape. Plans for a better show next year were presented and discussed at length. Several new names have been added to the membership list.

Elaborate premium lists will be made up for the 1918 show and the public will be taken into consideration in staging the classic. The officers elected are president, Wm. F. Meyer, Jr.; vice president, Theodore Militzer; secretary, Dr. Bruce T. Best; treasurer, Herman H. Boeger; delegate to the American Poultry Association convention, Fred J. Stolba. — 1917 —

Otto Landmeier improves store

Otto Landmeier, one of the progressive merchants of Arlington Heights, has lowered the floor of his hardware store two feet which affords more space and makes it much more convenient for customers. Those high steps were necessary in the old days, but not now with our modern sewer systems. A large new plate glass front will be an attraction to this splendid business location.

JUST AROUND the CORNER

Dear Jane:

It does seem like this has been a great winter-winter for a large number of people, doesn't it? It certainly has been so in our acquaintance.

What with cousin Georgia in California for two months, George and Ethel on their way there, Uncle Paddy in Fla., Dorothy and Paul in Arizona, and other points south-west, and Bob Jr. recently back from Cuba and shortly to leave for Venezuela to mention but a few.

Oh, well, say I in the words of that philosophic traveler, Touchstone, "When I was at home, I was in a better place; but travelers must be content." Not that I wouldn't give a lot to be setting off for a charge of scenery. To hear Bob Jr. tell about it, one must be prepared to put up with a certain amount of inconvenience while travelling these days. So, perhaps, it is just as well that Rob and I are busy here at the farm for the present.

All of which reminds me that there is an art to this business of travelling, particularly now, when train, plane and hotel accommodations are so uncertain.

It seems to me the first principle of the art of travel might be: to be content, to accept with good grace whatever turns up; to expect considerably less than perfection and, perhaps, to be pleasantly disappointed. Samuel Johnson said: "The use of travelling is to regulate imagination by reality, and instead of thinking how things may be, to see them as they are."

Another old-time roamer, Huysmans offers the thought that the pleasure of travel excels more often in retrospect than at the moment when the traveller is on the spot and, maybe, undergoing hardships.

It is an excellent point to bear in mind when the coffee is vile and the mattress lumpy. The day will come when the traveler will forget those things and remember the view from his window of the sunrise over the Gulf Stream.

What do you suppose sends most people travelling? Is it because they find their normal lives a bit on the dull side, their routine somewhat wearisome, and they think they need change? If this is true, why do so many wanderers take the normalities along with them?

Haven't you ever noticed that John Q. Fussitt complains almost entire time he is suppose to be enjoying the southern sunshine, of the poor food, the lack of service in the hotel, or the noise his neighbors make in the next room? He is constantly comparing and contrasting and complaining, because he misses the comforts of home. Not much fun travel has to offer him!

Again, one sees the people who tell you they are longing to get away from it all, and what do they do? They will endeavor to do so by flocking in far-away vacation lands with the very same crowd they are tired of flocking with at home. They drink the same drinks, try to get the same food, talk the same brand of politics, nursing their prejudices, avoiding people with other sets of prejudices, and bristling at any stranger like so many porcupines.

This type of traveler acquires little polish, if any. They avoid contact with "the natives," and in so doing miss one of the best rewards of travel—"the chance rewards." Artful travelers seek those rewards. They can hobnob with the home folks any day abroad, they'd rather meet strangers; they "make all men their countrymen"; they have adventure in human nature, the best adventures there are. To know a country, one must know its people.

Every day more and more luscious strawberries are appearing at the markets. Realizing it is not too early to check our strawberry pie recipes, I am giving you one this week to keep at the head of your list. It deserves the top spot—you'll find this out by trying it.

Strawberry Whipped Cream Pie

1 baked pie shell
1 qt. of ripe strawberries
1 cup sugar
2 tbs. corn starch
1/2 pt. whipped cream

Method: Slice the berries—cover with sugar for thirty minutes. Drain the juice as for sun preserves. Heat the juice and thicken with the corn starch. Boil. This is very thick. Fold the berries into this mixture. Chill. Whip the cream and fold into the berries. Fill the baked pie shell. Garnish the top with large berries.

One of these quips has to do with little Johnny who was having a wonderful time with crayons and a sheet of paper. His mother asked what he was drawing. "I'm making a picture of God." Shocked, she queried, "How can you do that? No one in the world knows what God looks like." "Well," replied Johnny with assurance, "they will when I get through."

These odd facts, says Mr. Untermeyer, come from school examination papers: Capital punishment should not be used too frequently in schools. . . . Socrates died from an overdose of wedlock. . . . Herrings go about the sea in shawls. . . . During the Napolonic Wars crowned heads were trembling in their shoes.

Tales of the STREET

BY T. C. HART

WHAT HAPPENED

Some folks seem to be under the impression that the Palatine Consolidated school district came into being through some skulduggery or sleight of hand on the part of the school board and that no one else knew what was going on.

What happened was this. Two years ago the school boards of the several districts in the township began holding meetings to discuss problems of mutual interest, among which was the question of consolidation. The school boards formed an organization known as "the elementary school boards association of Palatine township" or some such long winded name which might have been enough to strangle the new organization—only it wasn't.

That organization of school board members had many meetings and made a thorough study of the question of consolidation. They had expert surveys made of population trends, etc., by experts from the University of Chicago and Northwestern University.

After more than a year long study of the question they decided to put the question of consolidation up to a vote of the people. Two districts, 18 and 12, decided not to join the movement. Dist. 12 wanted to be left free to join Barrington, and Dist. 18 preferred to remain as they were.

Plenty of publicity was given the consolidated question in the press and in a brochure sent out to all voters by the school board's association. An election was called with notices thereof posted and published. The election was held, and while the vote was light, the proposition carried in every district involved.

That more people did not vote was not because of any secrecy about the election, screaming headlines in the local paper telling the world all about it. That people did not vote was merely the fault of the people and not the school board's.

After the election organizing the consolidated district the board members met and selected a group to run for the new school board. Again notices of this election were posted and published and any person or group of persons were free to file petitions and become candidates in the election.

The fact that no other ticket was filed was not the fault of the school officials. Then when it came to the voting on a school site, and the purchase thereof, notices were again published and posted. Newspaper publicity told all about the site and the proposed price to be paid for it.

Again the whole subject was out in the open with no one trying to "put anything over."

Again at the election the vote was light but overwhelming favorable. When a board member moved away last summer his place was filled as is provided by law, by an appointment to fill the vacancy until the next regular election.

The next election is on the second Saturday of April when the appointed members, one other board member and the president of the board are up for election. Any person may become a candidate by filing the necessary petition and once more the sports found again there is nothing mysterious or secret about the proceedings.

The whole process of forming the consolidated district, electing the board of education, selecting a school site and authorizing the purchase of that site has been accomplished under a series of free elections held under the American system of free government.

At a not far distant date there will be another election, this time for a $600,000 bond issue for the building of the new school. There will be nothing mysterious or secret about this election either.

Before the bond issue election a brochure will be circulated giving facts and figures about the proposed building and facts which will make it possible for every taxpayer to see just how much the new building is going to cost him.

Notices of this election will be posted and published, there will be plenty of publicity about the whole affair, and it will then be up to the public as to whether or not the consolidated school district will be authorized to erect a suitable building for the education of the children of the district.

The question, like all those before, will be strictly up to the people. There is no secret diplomacy, no sleight of hand performance about it. It isn't a question for the school board alone; it's a question for the people of the whole district and they alone will decide the final issue.

WHAT WAS IT?

March is here, the question is it was lion-like or lamb-like? It wasn't too cold, and yet it wasn't soft and lamb-like.

On the other hand it wasn't too lion-like either, although it snowed some and was a rather disagreeable day. It really didn't appear either lion-like or lamb-like, sort of like an obstreperous calf charging around and not knowing which way to go.

FEBRUARY GONE

Anyhow, February is gone and we haven't seen anyone that was sorry to see it go. Colder than normal with icy sidewalks and a mean north west wind that seemed to cut right through everything blowing most of the time.

The decidedly wintry February makes it seem like a long tough winter and now that February is out of the way people are looking forward to a break in the weather early in March that will hold out hope that spring is at last on the way.

VACATIONERS

The winter vacationers are beginning to hike back from the balmy climes, some of which haven't been so balmy at times this winter. California visitors seem to have had the bulge of the Florida tourists this winter, and the California Chamber of Commerce will no doubt be more noisy than ever in singing the praises of their native state.

It seems as if all these winter vacationers go for the warm climes, some of which have been

Deep blue sky the clouds between;

"On a cloud I saw a child." Or a blossoming orchard wild; Trees asleep of buds just dream, Feeling sap's resurgent stream. If a dream of buds is here, Winter must break camp, it's clear.

The kindergartners were looking at a picture showing an over-head wire and there was a debate about what the wire was for; they guessed trolley wire, telephone wire and son on. One child gave the final and unchallenged decision. "It's for the birds to be."

FLASH BULBS

It seems a new low in high school sportsmanship has been cooked up and used effectively by an otherwise respectable suburban school exploding camera flash bulbs in the eyes of opposing basketball players attempting free throws. One such incident could be kindly thought of as thoughtlessness, but two such flashes during a three minute overtime period from front row seats occupied by students, cheerleaders, reserve players and the coach preclude such consideration as the flashes were timed—not for good focusing, but instead for good hazing.

Names and facts aren't too important now since this particular offender was penalized by the Higher Judge in the absence of any action by your officials.

The important thing would seem to be taking steps to eliminate such practice in the future. With deference to high school journalistic photography, perhaps those who prefer scenes of a quiet, sportsmanlike, free throw attempt to non-offensive action shots, should be relegated to some quiet glen, barred from all high school gyms. If this approach doesn't correct the situation there certainly a technical foul would seem in order by your always over-exposed, over-trying, officials.

To protect a photogenic player son we must commit the unpardonable and sign this incognito to:

Flash Abhordin' Gordon Chicago.

ARLINGTON COACH

I wish to congratulate the Arlington Heights coach, Clarence Iba, on his fine work with the basketball team. In my estimate, Arlington Heights High School can be proud of the basketball teams, it has had these last few years. I am not going out on a limb to say this is the best team (1947) Arlington has.

But I will say this—the team of 1946 and 1947, doesn't have to take a back seat to any team Arlington has had. I am hoping that Arlington's team of 1947, will win a few games in the tournament for down state.

LAW on the FARM

Small loans—Farmers in Illinois annually use millions of dollars worth of short-term credit. Much of it is obtained from companies specializing in small loans. This is particularly true in dairy sections, where such short-term credit is frequently used to buy replacement stock. Under provisions of the Small Mans Act passed in 1935 and superseding an earlier law, small loan businesses are subject to certain regulations.

On all loans not in excess of $300, the law allows these companies to charge up to 3 percent a month on the first $150 of the unpaid principal balance and 2½ percent a month on any excess. On an annual basis, this means that 33 percent interest may be charged on $300, 36 percent on $150 or less and an amount varying between 33 percent and 36 percent on unpaid principal balances between $150 and $300. Monthly payments on the principal reduce the amount on which interest must be paid for any month.

The law attempts to secure substantial compliance by prohibiting the collection of service charges, advance payments and the compounding of interest. It also provides that no company shall encourage borrowers to split or divide loans, and that husbands and wives shall not be permitted to have separate contracts for loans at the same time, with the object, on the part of the company, of securing a higher rate of interest.

The law also sets up detailed provisions relative to the licensing and bonding of small loan companies and requires that certain records be kept by them.

Conceding that small loan companies do have a definite place in the credit field and that the legislation just referred to is an earnest and effective effort toward regulating such agencies, it is still not good business for farmers to use credit that may cost as much as 36 percent a year when it can be produced for less.

Also, for a farm business with a steady turnover, as is the case with dairy, poultry and mixed livestock farms, an effort should be made to pay cash for small items and to use short-term credit for procuring livestock, grain or equipment in substantial amounts.

The law on small loans may be found in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 74, Sections 19-46.

Types of green
onions and shallots

In addition to the regular types of green onions from sets and from seeds, there are several other types that may be used as green onions.

The Multiplier onions do not set seed. Each bulblet has from three to five buds. These bulbs are usually planted in late September or October for use the following spring. In northern Illinois they will need to be protected by a mulch of straw or other loose material.

Potato onions are a type of multiplier in which the several bulbils develop outside the mother bulb. If planted, the bulb will develop into a mother bulb; and if the mother bulb is planted the following fall or spring, it will give rise to a number of bulbils. Potato onions are not hardy.

White Welsh onions, which are often but erroneously listed as Japanese onions, from seeds which may be planted. They are short-lived perennials.

Egyptian onions, tree onions, perennial onions and top set onions are all the same thing. They develop aerial bulbils or sets which may be planted in either the fall or the spring. In the garden they multiply further by division. They are very hardy and are important in institutional gardens.

The true shallot is a different species found only in the deep south. The bulbs divide naturally under ground. However, in the trade almost any type of green onion may be sold as shallots.

Illinois boys and girls can wield their hoes and use their gardening skill in 1947 to win trip awards or scholarships in contests offered by the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association.

Announcement of the seventh annual NJVGA production and marketing contest has been made by Prop. Grant B. Snyder of Mass. State College, junior grower's adult advisor. The contest offers $6,000 in A. and P. Food Stores awards. Youths 14 to 21 throughout the United States can enroll now through their club leaders, 4-H club agents, and instructors in vocational agriculture, or directly through Professor Snyder at Amherst, Mass.

Fox Valley credit group at new high

"1946 was the best year in the history of the Fox Valley Joliet Production Credit Association," said Newell Tanner of Aurora, Illinois, president of the association, in commenting on the annual report of the association following a meeting of the board of directors held on Wednesday, February 12th. "554 loans were made to farmers in the seven counties served by the association for a total of $2,413,931.15. This represents an increase of 11.7% in the number of loans made and 29.8% in the dollar volume of such loans over 1945 business."

D. L. Achenbach, secretary-treasurer of the association, stated that at the year's end 1131 member-stockholders located throughout Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall and Will counties, owned a total of 35,944 shares in the association, with a par value of $5.00. Net earnings for the year were $6,586.93 which, by action of the board of directors, were added to reserves, bringing the latter figure to a total of $98,931.88.

Interest on GI loans is tax deductible

Interest or principle on GI loans paid by the government on behalf of a veteran may be listed as non-taxable income in filing Federal income tax returns for 1946, Veterans Administration officials of the Illinois regional office announced today.

The VA also disclosed that veterans who borrowed money under the amended GI bill may deduct all interest paid on the loan last year, even though part of that interest may have been paid by the government.

Under the revised GI bill, the Veterans Administration pays to the lender an amount equal to four per cent of the guaranteed portion of the loan. This amount may be credited against the debt itself or used to reduce the veteran's interest payment.

Veterans who applied for GI loans before Dec. 28, 1945, may only deduct interest payments which they themselves have made. They will not be credited for interest payments contributed by the government.

A Story With A Moral

A BAD DREAM on Monday Morning!

She sat up with a start . . . and stared at a huge white Laundry Bag sitting on the bed in front of her. The Laundry Bag said, "Ah, this is Monday morning and I have you in my power, you shall scrub, scrub, scrub me until you are tired, tired, tired and I am clean, clean, clean." But at that moment a brave Knight on a beautiful white charger dashed up and pierced the Laundry Bag with his lance. His name was PARK LANE. Then she woke up.

in accomplishment, pride in personal appearance, the sort of pride which keeps us from laying all of our troubles on other people's doorsteps, and keeps us fighting to win our place in life these are justifiable and helpful pride.

The people whom I know who are obviously proud are self centered people, who measure every person and idea against their opinions, and without thinking, believe that anything that contradicts their beliefs or differs from them is wrong or inferior. Their self conceit blinds them so completely that they can not possibly appreciate the abilities or intelligence of others, or understand human nature in any true sense of the word. Any person who is that proud is a mental cripple, and is to be pitied rather than condemned.

Some of them stole for clothes, money, the glitter and bubbles of easy living, to satisfy their false opinion as to what THEY are, as unusually intelligent people, believed they deserved. Other people have gone to the electric chair, or to life terms in prison, merely because of their pride — they were ready to kill in preference to having some of the shameful things they have done exposed, and their pride hurt. Others have taken suicide as a way out of a situation that would expose them to ridicule. Some killed for revenge. Some pride builds hatred and a desire to get even. Hatred, envy, and a desire for revenge are always evidence of false pride.

Of course, a limited amount of pride is good for everyone. Pride

Open social security office at Des Plaines

Beneficiaries and claimants of federal old-age and survivors insurance payments in this area are now being serviced from the Evarston Social Security field office, Miss Ellen McGuire, manager, announced.

Records of claimants who filed at the Lawrence avenue field office have been transferred this month to room 408, State Bank and Trust Company Building at 1603 Orrington avenue, Evanston, and all future inquiries should be made there, Miss McGuire said.

The charge was made by the Social Security Administration when a recent survey showed that newly established bus service to Evanston is faster and cheaper than available transportation to the Chicago office formerly serving Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, and Wheeling. The Evanston office also services the area from Howard street north to the Cook County line and the westerly towns of Skokie, Morton Grove, Glenview, Golf, Northfield, and Northbrook.

Additional service to claimants, applicants for account numbers, and people seeking general information on the Social Security program will be provided with the opening of itinerant stations in Des Plaines and Glenview. Miss McGuire announced that a representative of the Evanston office will be in the Post Office at Des Plaines from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and in the Civic Building at Glenview from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month, beginning March 11.

Ballet — Something New in physical education

Something new in physical education has been added to the curriculum at St. Katharine's School, Davenport, Iowa, with the announcement that classes have been formed in ballet dancing. These classes are under the direction of a professional ballet instructor.

St. Katharine's is one of the first schools in the Middle West to add regular courses in the ballet to the school curriculum. Meeting with such popular approval, several other schools will add the ballet as soon as instructors are available.

In addition to being taught the dance itself, the history, significance and art of the ballet are being stressed.

The ballet will be featured at St. Katharine's May Fete, which has gained popularity throughout the Middle West.

during general conversation?

6. Who should be the first to leave the dinner table?

7. Is it wrong to say, "Miss Blank, I want to make you acquainted with Mr. Brown?"

8. May the person who is pouring tea hold the cup in her hand when filling it?

9. When arriving at a friend's home and she is just leaving, what should one do?

10. Should the hostess or the guest of honor be served first at dinner?

11. When should the bread and butter plates be removed from the table?

12. Should the husband or the wife answer the door when they are entertaining, if there is no servant?

ANSWERS

1. Avoid closing the letter with an "ing" sentence, such as, "hoping to hear from you soon," or, "Trusting this finds you well," or, "Having nothing more to report, I thing I'll stop." 2. No; neither the family of the bride nor the bridegroom should give showers.

3. On his right side. 4. No; she should wait for him to pick it up. 5. Religion and politics. Too often these two topics bring on heated arguments and embarrassing situations. 6. No one leaves the table until the hostess rises, and she must wait until every guest has finished eating. 7. Yes, the phrase, "I want to make you acquainted with" is not good form. It is better to say, "Miss Blank may I present Mr. Brown?" 8. No; the cup should be placed on the saucer or tea plate before filling it. 9. Tell her that you will not detain her, but will see her some other time. 10. Under ordinary circumstances, where things can be served quickly and smoothly and where the number at the table is small, the guest of honor is served first. However, where the number of guests is large and the guest of honor's dinner is likely to be cold by the time the hostess is served, it is better to serve her first. 11. When the table is cleared for dessert. 12. The bus-
